

We all know what Richard meant to his family, friends and the community around him. He will always be remembered for his huge smile and heart to match.

His dedication to the community is evident by his membership in the Lebanon Rotary Club, his leadership in managing the Lebanon Youth Baseball League for years and his support of numerous charities through the generosity of THW Insurance, of which he was a partner!

The goal of this foundation will be to provide support for numerous deserving organizations and individuals in our community through financial donations made in Richards name. Those of us who knew Richard will never forget him and it is the goal of this foundation to provide a continuing legacy in his honor.

FRIENDS, GOLFER'S & VOLUNTEERS

We are excited to announce the 3rd Annual Richard Whitener Memorial Golf Classic will take place on Monday, August 8th at Old Natchez Country Club. This event will again support the foundation that was set up in Richard's name that will benefit multiple charitable organizations in the Wilson County community.

We all know what Richard meant to his family, friends and the local community, so we ask that you join us for this day to continue Richard's legacy and celebrate with us as we enjoy sharing memories and a great day of golf in his honor. Those of us who knew Richard will never forget him and it is the goal of this foundation to provide a continuing legacy in his honor.

We have also partnered with the Nashville Barrel Company to select a premium private barrel of bourbon that has been bottled and is being sold to benefit the Richard Whitener Memorial Fund. Please see more detail below...

Please take a moment to review our sponsorship opportunities and help us make this a successful endeavor. Encourage your friends and family to participate. We will spend the day paying tribute to our friend the way he would have wanted.

Sincerely,

Mike Dover
