

The Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame is a property of the 501(c)(3) nonprofit Nashville Songwriters Foundation, Inc.

Induction into this select body is one of the nation's most highly prized songwriting achievements. Since 1970, the Hall has enshrined 247 of the greatest writers ever to put words to music in Music City.

In addition to honoring legendary songwriters at our annual gala, NaSHOF:

- Provides free after-school songwriting instruction to Nashville middle-school students through our Express Yourself program;
- Produces a national public television show, The Songwriters, spotlighting members of the Hall of Fame;
- Co-hosts free songwriting retreats with our partners Operation Song, Belmont University and Middle Tennessee State University to help military veterans process emotional trauma;
- Maintains free songwriting displays open to the public through our Hall of Fame Gallery & Songwriters Square at the Music City Center.

Thanks to your support, we're able to live out our mission to honor Nashville's rich legacy of songwriting excellence through preservation, celebration and education!

BENEFITTING

Hi Friends,

Clean those clubs, inspect those grips and loosen up your swing – the second annual Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame Golf Classic is coming up Monday, May 19, at Old Natchez Country Club in Franklin, TN!

As winter gives way to the warmth of spring, this fantastic day will blossom with networking, new acquaintances and old friends. (And yes, songwriters are in the mix, so expect the unexpected!) In addition to enjoying a great course, fine food and thirst-quenching beverages, we'll be entertained with an old-school Guitar Pull from some of Nashville's finest singer/songwriters!

Whether you participate as a player, sponsor or both, we have an awesome day of sport, socializing and singing in store, so don't miss out! The event is open to men and women and will be played in a scramble format. All proceeds benefit the Hall of Fame, so please tell your friends, clients and anyone else who'd like to support this special occasion to join us.

May is on the way!
